

UNIVERSITY STUDENT HANDBOOK

OFFICIAL POLICY & STUDENT RIGHTS DOCUMENT • VERSION 5.0

Document Ref: KB-SH-V5

1. Code of Conduct & Rights

All enrolled students are members of the university academic community and are entitled to equal opportunity, freedom of inquiry, and fair standard procedures. Respectful discourse and strict adherence to institutional regulations are expected at all times.

Core Requirement: Students must maintain a minimum attendance threshold of 75% in all registered coursework to remain eligible for end-of-semester examinations.

2. Academic Integrity & Ethics

Academic dishonesty, including plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration, misrepresentation of data, and cheating on assessments, is treated with zero tolerance. Offenses are subject to Disciplinary Board review.

1st Infraction

Formal written warning, automatic failing grade ('F') on the affected coursework, and mandatory academic counseling.

2nd Infraction

Immediate suspension for one academic term, zero credit awarded for all current courses, and academic probation upon return.

3. Campus Resources & Services

- University Library: Accessible 24/7 during semester terms; digital database login available via student portal credentials.
- Health & Counseling Center: Free medical consultations and mental health counseling available Monday–Friday (8 AM–5 PM).
- IT Support Services: Technical assistance for student portals, campus Wi-Fi access, and lab workstations available at HelpDesk Office.